Eastern Intelligence.

By the arrival of the Oregon last evening, we are enabled to publish Atlantic news to the 8th inst. There is no intelligence of any importance from the army in any quarter, though the position of affairs in Texas seems to be such as to warrant the expectation of decisive action very soon in that region. Congress is just recovering from the leisure of the holidays, and it is to be hoped will do something shortly to promote active and prompt reinforcements of the army. We like the proposition of Mr. Howe of Wisconsin, in the Senate. It looks like being in earnest. Senator Conness has made a raid upon John P. Hale, because the later presumed to criticise the action of the Navy Department. We think Mr. Hale will not be annihilated by the new born zeal of Conness, or of any of those who like him seem to forget that the New Hampshire Senator has been struggling for years against the party which has demoralized the Navy, and that he is ambitious as Chairman of the Naval Committee to bring it up to the highest possible efficiency.

It is reported that one or more steam vessels of war are to be sent forthwith to the Pacific—the Government seeming at last to realize that this coast is in a defenceless condition, in case any hostile attempt is made. Indeed, there has been quite an anxious scare down at the Bay, lest the Alabama should slip inside the Golden Gate some pleasant evening, and carry off or blow up all the San Franciscans, their wives and little ones. If such an effort should be made, there is no means whatever to resist it, and so Uncle Sam proposes to furnish the good loyal people there with armed ships enough to protect them from all piratical assaults. It is reported that General Wright is to be superseded in command of this Military Department by General McPherson, an officer who has greatly distinguished himself in the recent battles in Tennessee. His arrival will be gladly welcomed. There are conflicting rumors in regard to the removal of other officers on the coast, as there seems to be so slight foundation for any of them, we think them hardly worth narrating.

WHAT ABOUT THE ALABAMA?—The Alta has the following, which gives the foundation for the reports in San Francisco:

It is gratifying to be able to announce that the Government has at length been aroused to the necessity of doing something for the protection of California. Three vessels of war are to be immediately dispatched to this coast, together with some infantry reinforcements and batteries of field artillery. The immediate cause of this step is an apprehension that the Alabama is steering this way. We do not know what grounds there are for concluding that Semmes has turned his eyes in this direction.

All the facts that have reached the public on this subject are as follows. About three months ago the Alabama was at Cape Town. She sailed from that port to the Mauritius. The next report was that she had appeared on her old cruising ground off Bahia, on the eastern coast of South America; but if she had really sailed there, it is not a little strange that we have not since heard of any depredations committed by her.

There is room for doubt then as to whether she recrossed the Atlantic or not. Against the supposition of her reappearance there is an extract from a letter of a rebel naval officer to a friend in Mobile, recently captured in a blockade runner, in which the writer stated that as soon as they had swept the Pacific of Yankee ships they would again return to the Atlantic. One thing is certain—if the Alabama is endeavoring to make this coast, she is moving very quietly, for though we have dates from Callao to Nov. 13th, Melbourne, Oct. 9th, Sydney, Oct 20th, Hongkong, Oct 9th; Shanghai, Nov. 21st; and Honolulu, Dec. 12th; no mention is anywhere made of her.

Still there is sufficient doubt as to her movements, to suggest the wisdom of preparation here. There are only two armed vessels in this port at this time. The Shubrick, now doing duty as a guard ship; but though she carries five guns she does not amount to much. The Saranac is at Mare Island, and could be got ready for service in a short time. The Lancaster, a very staunch but at the same time slow vessel, is at Guaymas; and the Narragansett is cruising in the Gulf of Georgia, while our Monitor still lies under water at the foot of Hathaway's wharf.

All things considered, it is high time, not only that the Government, but the people of this State, were up and doing. For the last two years we have been urging the necessity of making preparations for any emergency that might arise, but neither the authorities at Washington, nor those at Sacramento, could be moved to do anything. God grant that no disaster may flow from their tardiness. Semmes spent some time in this city a few years ago, and may be in possession of more information in regard to this port, than any one supposes. The utmost vigilance should be exercised till the assistance which the General Government is going to afford, reaches us.

ENROLLED.—We are informed by our worthy enrolling officer, C. W. Savage, that the number of men enrolled in Jackson county of the first class is 758, of the second class, 161—total, 919.—Sentinel.

EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to January 8th.

News of January 3d.

NEW YORK, January 3d.—Advices from Cumberland, Md., of the 1st inst., state that our pickets near Winchester, Va., had been driven into Bunker Hill.

A special dispatch from Albany says that the New Police Commissioners will probably appoint N. J. Waterbury Police Superintendent, and two thirds of the captains will report to him, and that the Governor will order out the entire military force of the city to support the claims of the new board.

Two brothers named Wolfe and Benjamin and Fred Hoffman have been arrested and confined in Fort Lafayette for being concerned in the blockade running business. They shipped goods to Nassau per brig Goodline, which were subsequently found on the captured steamer Margaret and Jessie. J. D. Young and J. C. Budd have also been sent to Fort Lafayette for shipping contraband goods. Other parties and also visitants of hotels known as the headquarters of those of secession proclivities have been arrested. The blockade running business is about "played out."

The New Orleans Star of Dec 29th, with dates from Havana to the 27th, says: Gen. Fitz Henry Warren, with a considerable force, had embarked on the steamer Warrior, and crossed to Matagorda Bay, investing Indianola without opposition. Important rebel documents have been captured, among them Magruder's address to the people of Western Texas.

An expedition composed of three negro regiments, one white regiment and a battery of artillery, under Ullman, had gone from New Orleans to the mouth of the Red river.

CAIRO, Jan 3.—Memphis dates to Dec 29th say there is a report of Forest having crossed the Tennessee river on Monday with one of the largest supply trains of the war, including 1,800 head of cattle, besides every horse, mule and wagon he could find in the country during the few weeks he was in west Tennessee, and that he was busily employed in getting those supplies. The results show well for his industry.

News of January 4th.

WASHINGTON, January 4th.—Dispatches from Mr Pruyn, American Minister in Japan, announce that the Japanese Government has agreed to pay the claim of $10,000 for damages in intercepting the American Steamer Pembroke last year. This argues a good understanding with Japan.

The Navy Department has official information of the capture of the Mexican schooner Bates del Nilmo on the 3d of Dec., ten miles east of Padre Island on the Texas coast. It had neither papers nor log-book. It was loaded with coffee, sugar, percussion caps, etc.

At a Cabinet consultation last night it was determined to postpone the draft, and ask Congress for an extension of time for payment of the veteran bounties.

But $60,000,000 of the 5-20 loan remain unsold. The loan will be kept open for the benefit of the people at large. The ten day's notice required by law before closing it will not be given by Mr Chase. It has been a people's loan, and he has no disposition to withhold the small balance now remaining from them.

By a recent decision of the Commissioner General of the Land Office, the homestead settler has not a complete legal right, but merely an inceptive title liable to be defeated, for non performance of the conditions. He can therefore only use timber for fencing, building and repairs, under the bounty of Congress. He is permitted to acquire a homestead in the public domain for agricultural purposes, on condition of a cultivation and settlement for five years. Until this condition is fulfilled he cannot commit waste by felling timber for market, as it reverts to the United States on his failure to comply with the law. As to any supposed purchase by a party from the homestead settler, no right can attach to a sale. The settler has no power to sell, and hence the timber cut by him is liable to seizure.

Information from the Rapidan this morning is to the effect that the enemy opposite Meade is making no demonstration indicating that rebel movements in the valley are the part of any general movement of Lee's army. Rumors of the enemy's designs and operations in the Shenandoah are exaggerated. Fitz Hugh Lee's cavalry, perhaps 1,000 strong, supported by Early's three meagre brigades of infantry, with Imboden's and detachments of other local leaders, numbering all told 6,000 to 7,000 men, are near Woodstock and Mount Jackson, and make an occasional dash as far north as Winchester.

The Navy Department has received information in relation to the attack on the gunboat Marblehead at Stono Inlet Christmas forenoon, by which Robt Brown, L. Shaw, and Jas Phillips were killed, and Chas. Moore, A. Henderson, John Hackett, and Chas Semles were wounded. Commander Balch of the Pawnee, says that at 6:25 A. M., on Christmas Eve, the enemy opened on the Marblehead, which replied vigorously. The Pawnee opened fire on the rebel batteries at 7 o'clock. The Williams, hearing firing, slipped her cable and came down Folley river, and opened fire handsomely. The rapid fire from the vessel soon caused the enemy to retreat in disorder, leaving two guns in batteries. The Pawnee then proceeded off [illegible].

NEW YORK, Jan 4.—A very important seizure of confederate bonds and treasury notes to the amount of $7,000,000 was made in this city by United States Marshal Murray and detectives. A large quantity of plates, dies and machinery were seized. The parties were arrested.

Mayor Gunther assumed the duties of his office to day, and delivered a long message. On the retirement of ex Mayor Opdyke he was escorted by a Committee of prominent citizens with a band of music to a neighboring hotel, where an address was delivered and festivities indulged in. It appears by Mayor Gunther's address that the city debt is $20,000,000, probably arising from the fact, as stated, that the present local government is lacking in that simplicity necessary to economy and efficiency, and that the subdivision of functions and want of responsibility has led to extravagance and multiplication of offices.

The weekly bank statements show an increase of loans of $2,200,000, decrease of specie, $350,000, increase of deposits, $223,000.

CHICAGO, Jan 4th.—The New York dispatch announcing the death of Archbishop Hughes was premature. He was still alive at midnight, though very low, and was not expected to survive.

At the time of the excitement in reference to the plot for the release of the rebel prisoners on Johnson's Island, several journals in the north ridiculed the the whole thing as a hoax. The rebel Secretary of the Navy, in a late report, referred to the organization of a Lake expedition for that purpose and says that it was frustrated by the discovery and revelation of the plot by the authorities of Canada.

Washington special dispatches say the sub committee of the House on the tax question are ready to report on the re-assembling of Congress. The tax on whisky will be increased to 70 cents, on tobacco and petroleum it will be doubled. Licenses also will be increased considerably. Among others $100 will be imposed on each bank, insurance company and mercantile agency, $5 on vessels of 50 tons burthen, and $5 on each additional 100 tons, $50 on agents of foreign insurance companies, $10 to $20 on boarding houses, according to the rental, $3 on hand draymen and cartmen, $10 on conveyances, etc.

News of January 5th.

CAIRO, January 5.—A delegation of prominent citizens of Arkansas arrived last night en route for Washington to arrange for that State to resume its position in the Union. They say that three fourths of the whole population favor it.

The Mississippi river at this point is frozen clear across. Memphis steamers report the thermometer 10 degrees below zero on the morning of the 1st. It was 16 degrees below zero the same morning here. A number of persons have been found frozen to death below Cairo. On New Year's Eve 10 negro soldiers perished on Island No. 10, three privates of the 52d Illinois regiment were frozen to death six miles below Fort Pillow.

No serious damage was done to the Memphis and Charleston railroad by Forest when his forces crossed it. Grierson is still in pursuit, and at last account was south of the Coldwater. Lee has reinforced Forrest from Okolona. The guerrillas under Richardson crossed our line on the 24th December, on their way South. All is quiet in the State since his departure. Generals Ord, Veatch, Hunter, Lawler and Sherman are at Memphis.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan 5.—The Military Commission in session here during the past week has developed several facts bearing on the steamboat [illegible], as the following: Capt Cane, of the steamer John Brooks, testified that the boat was worth about $8,000 when she first went into the Government service; that at the rate of her charter she had earned $117,500 up to that date, the Government supplied the coal and the average running expenses were only from $1,000 to 1,200 per month, which was returned by goods sold on board and by the proceeds of meals and berths. The evidence goes to show there has been a ring of contractors in dealing with one at Baltimore, with which the latter is connected.

CHICAGO, Jan 5.—In the Confederate Congress, on the 24th ult. a bill to prohibit brokers, brokers and all persons concerned in trade buying or selling the currency of the United States, under penalty of a fine from $500 to $20,000 and imprisonment from three months to three years, and the bill that no one should be exempted from military service by reason of having furnished a substitute, passed the House.

A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer writing from Roanoke December 24th says: The loss of the Government by Averill's raid is heavy, consisting of a large quantity of bacon and corn, with a considerable amount of leather which had been accumulated for the use of Government workshops. The loss of private property in the village and neighborhood is considerable. About 30,000 pounds of bacon was saved by being shipped before the enemy reached the depot.

The Richmond Examiner of December 28th says Jackson who pursued Averill captured a Yankee ambulance train and 200 prisoners, their horses and equipments, a number of carbines and revolvers. Eight of Averill's officers are said to have been captured, including his Adjutant General, together with a complete map of ten fifteen counties. As Gen Averill's report makes no mention of this capture we presume that the Examiner's statements are much exaggerated and probably totally false.

The Richmond Dispatch announces the death of Gen Thomas Green. The General figured in Texas during the War of Independence and subsequently resided in California where he was at one time State Senator and Brevet Major General of Militia.

NEW YORK, Jan 6.—The Tribune's Washington special says Gen. Burnside is now here, and has at the earnest solicitation of the President withdrawn his resignation. It is not improbable but he will be assigned to the command of the Department of Ohio.

Maj Gen Stoneman has been relieved from his command and assigned to duty as Chief of Cavalry at the West, whither he proceeds at once.

Gen Butler arrived in town to day from Point Lookout, and had a long conference with the President upon matters pertaining to his Department on the subject of exchanges, and as to pardoning those rebel prisoners at Point Lookout who have expressed a willingness to take the oath of allegiance.

The Tribune vouches for the genuineness of the following letter, which intimates that the city of Charleston is mined with powder:

"Charleston, Dec. 9th.—DEAR COUSIN—Fred has consented at last to let me come to Macon. You may expect me in a few days. The other day a Yankee shell exploded just around the corner from our house, tearing the building to pieces and setting two others on fire. Nobody was injured. I don't believe there are 20 ladies in town, able to get away. Most families have gone to Dorchester, Summerville, and even to Walterboro, and every house in these places is crowded. The majority of our people have left most of their furniture in their houses expecting to return to them in a few weeks, but of course they know, if the Yankees take the city, their houses, furniture and all will be destroyed. Gen. Beauregard caused information to reach all that if he finds it impossible to hold the city he will leave it a mass of ruins. No one will complain of this as they know the barbarians have sworn to destroy every vestige of the secession nest if they can take it. If they should ever enter the city you will hear of the greatest earthquake ever caused by human agency. It will be a consolation to you to know that should the vandals ever get here they will never be able to reach Macon. Beauregard is confident they could never get ten miles beyond the city in any direction and equally confident they can never reach it. It is mournful to go through the streets and see them entirely deserted, with the exception, now and then, of one of our colored people or squalid Irish women."

The Herald's Washington special says a dispatch from a reliable source says Gen Early with three brigades of Ewell's corps—perhaps 5,000 in all—besides the forces of Imboden, McNeil and Fitzhugh Lee's cavalry, are in the Shenandoah Valley, and west of it towards Petersburg. Brig Gen Sullivan and Gen Averill are in good force and wide awake.

It is understood to be definitely arranged that Rosecrans is to take Schofield's place in the Department of Missouri.

The Herald's Key West correspondent states that naval operations in West Florida continue active and successful. The extensive salt works of the rebels were destroyed in St. Andrew Bay, and St. Andrew city leveled to the ground by the crews of the steamers Bloomer and Restless. The salt works were valued at $3,000,000.

The Freedman's celebration of the anniversary of the President's Emancipation Proclamation took place at Cooper Institute last night. Addresses were made by the Revs Drs Bellows, Cheever and others, and letters from Gov Andrew, Charles Sumner and others, read. The principal portion of the audience were colored.

Admiral Farragut expects to sail to day, on the flag ship Hartford, to take command of the Eastern blockading squadron.

The special to the Times says our Government will not permit Gen Butler to be outlawed by Benjamin, and the exchange of prisoners committed to him will be left in his hands. Secretary Stanton has enlarged Gen Butler's powers, by putting all the rebel prisoners in the United States under his care. There will be 10,000 at Point Lookout within three weeks. The policy is resolutely insisted on that all exchanges shall take place through Gen Butler and none except through him. Jeff Davis was in favor of recognizing him, as Ould had already done. Benjamin wrote the proclamation outlawing Butler. As Lincoln's last proclamation outlawed the whole of the Richmond Government, thus making equality in disability, there is no doubt but exchanges will soon be re-established.

CINCINNATI, Jan 5.—The Ohio Legislature organized yesterday. Gov Tod's Message was very brief. The financial affairs of the State were never in a better condition. The public debt of the State has been reduced $676,000. The military system adopted by the Legislature last winter proved a success. He recommends that the banking corporations now existing under the State authorities be given all reasonable facilities for closing their business. He attributes the escape of John Morgan to negligence, arising from a misunderstanding between the military and civil officers at the Penitentiary of their respective duties, and calls attention to the bravery and gallantry of our soldiers in the field. He says, although the wicked rebellion continues, we can justly claim for Ohio a full performance of her duty in her efforts to crush it. The number of troops raised since the war, is 200,671.

The headquarters of the Department of Ohio has been removed to Lexington, Kentucky.

ALBANY, Jan 5.—The Legislature organized to-day, and Republican officers were elected. The Governor's Message, referring to national affairs, says: "But one course will save us from national disruption—we must adhere to the solemn pledges made by the Government at the outset of the war—we must seek to restore the Union and uphold the Constitution. To this end, while we put forth every exertion to break down an armed rebellion, we must use every influence of wise statesmanship to bring back those States which now reject Constitutional obligations, we must hold forth every honorable inducement to the people of the South to assume again the rights and duties of American citizenship. We have reached that point in the progress of the war for which all have struggled and we now stand before the world a great successful military power. Wise statesmanship can now bring the war to a close upon the terms solemnly avowed at the outset: good faith to public creditors, to all classes of citizens, and the world demands that this be done. The triumphs won by our soldiers should be followed up by the peace making policy of statesmen in the Cabinet, and in no other way can we save the Union."

WASHINGTON, Jan 5.—The President sent a message to day, recommending that the joint resolution, approved December 23d, prohibiting, after 5th January, the payment of bounties to volunteers, as now practiced by the War Department, to the extent of $300 in each case, be so modified as to allow bounties to be paid as they now are—at least until the 1st of February. The President says the Executive approval was given to the resolution, but now, by closer attention and fuller knowledge of the fact he feels constrained to recommend a reconsideration of the subject.

The Secretary of War, in a letter accompanying the message says: Although much difference of opinion exists in respect to the system of raising troops by volunteers and payment of bounties, and the system of raising an adequate force by draft, yet it is certain that whatever may be the weight or influence of individual opinion, a large portion of the people in every State prefer the method of contributing their proportion of military force by bounty to volunteers, rather than by draft.

News of January 6th.

WASHINGTON, January 6th.—The reason for the movement of Early to the Shenandoah valley is believed to be for no other purpose than to protect that section and the railroads south of that point from our cavalry raids. Early has none of his own divisions, but has been furnished with one brigade from each division of Ewell's corps, evidently for the purpose of leading us to wrong conclusions. From reports of rebel prisoners and deserters no apprehension is now felt concerning the operations of Early in the region.

Orders have been issued by the War Department postponing the draft until the 1st of February.

An officer of Averill's command writes that [illegible] 000 dollars will not cover the rebel loss by the late raid.

A dispatch from headquarters of the Army of the Potomac yesterday says nothing of interest is transpiring. The enrollment of citizens in the army is nearly completed, and includes whites and blacks. The number subject to draft will be very considerable.

Nothing seems to be known of the arrangement recently effected by the Government authorities and Gen Butler in relation to the exchange of prisoners further than the fact that he has ample authority to act in such a manner as will best secure this desirable object.

The following named gentlemen compose the Senate finance committee: Fessenden, Chairman, Sherman, Howe, Cowan, Clark, Van Winkle, and Conness.

NEW YORK, Jan 6.—The Herald's special says not less than 25 different propositions to amend the conscription law were submitted to the Senate yesterday. The bill before the committee has the approval of the Secretary of War and the Provost Marshal General. It will retain the $300 clause and requires that the conscript shall be responsible for his substitute's service.

The Herald's Washington dispatch denies that Rosecrans has been assigned to the Department of the Missouri, and says that he will not be.

The Tribune's special says: The mission of Gen Butler here has a much wider reach than has yet been stated, and relative to future plans of the utmost importance, the nature of which must remain a secret till subsequent action on the part of the rebels causes developments. Butler had a protracted interview to day with the President, Stanton and Halleck, and is understood to have received their endorsement to his proposed course, and had full powers given him to carry the same into effect. That all the rebel prisoners, about 48,000 in number, are to be transmitted to his department is true, and retaliatory measures to a proper and legitimate extent, have been determined upon. Also embraced in his scheme is a move in the game which the rebels little think of and which cannot fail to bring them to terms. He has prepared a counter move for every possible contingency, and whether they refuse to hold communication or not the result will be the same.

Other specials from Washington are of the same tenor on this subject.

The Tribune's special has the following: A Government officer just from Newbern, N. C., says the scheme for the occupation of the abandoned plantations works admirably. The rental already is producing quite a revenue, besides relieving Government of the support of thousands of people, white and black.

Burnside leaves to morrow to assume command of the department of the Ohio, relieving Gen Foster, who is reported to be in bad health.

CAIRO, January 6th.—A gentleman from Texas, who arrived here on Monday, represents the Union feeling as very strong where he lived, and also in Arkansas. Provisions are plenty and cheap; corn, particularly, is abundant; groceries were scarce.

The notorious Quantrell has 500 men back of Lake Providence Bayou. Bartholomew and Capers are in the same neighborhood with about the same number. A third regiment is being raised and will rendezvous in the same vicinity. Marmaduke and Price have from 6,000 to 7,000 men, mostly cavalry, near Rockport.

The rebels were very active in recruiting, the object being to attack Little Rock. Kirby Smith has superseded Holmes, who is ordered to Richmond. Smith is in command of all the rebel forces west of the Mississippi. His headquarters were at Camden. He had under him nearly 15,000 men. General Harrison was at Monroe on the Watchita river with 1,500 effective mounted men.

Our Government was taking every measure to afford protection to commerce on the Mississippi, and render navigation secure from guerilla attacks.

In addition to the fleet of gunboats patroling the river from Columbus to New Orleans, there is a marine brigade doing good service below Napoleon.

It is contemplated to establish a line of signal stations communicating with each other from Cairo south in order to give instant information of any outrage that might be perpetrated. A short time ago the Secretary of War sent orders to Colonel Myers of the Signal Corps to cause to be made a careful exploration of the route between Memphis and Cairo. Col Myers entered zealously into the work, giving it his personal supervision. The plan is entirely practicable, and can be carried into effect with comparatively little expense. It is proposed to establish 21 stations at a distance of nine miles apart. By avoiding the bends of the river the distance between the two cities is thus materially shortened. These stations will each have a small garrison for their defence, and in case of attack they can easily call to their assistance a gunboat.

CHICAGO, Jan 6.—A special Washington dispatch says, during the recess Senator Wilson has drawn up the amendments to the Conscription bill, which are said to embody the views of the Government officially. These amendments strike out the second section of the present law, which allows exemptions to the only sons of widows, fathers of motherless children, etc., in fact, under the new bill, none are exempt but the Vice President, Governors and Judges of Federal and State Courts. It receives as substitutes, only those not liable to draft.

The proposition to repeal the forty on paper is before the Ways and Means Committee and has more friends than a similar measure last session.

DAYTON, Ohio, Jan 6.—Two passenger trains collided seven miles north of this city yesterday, two persons were killed and from 30 to 60 injured, several of them very seriously.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Jan 1.—St. Joseph College, 15 miles from here, was entirely burned on New Year's night. The libraries, which were very valuable, were all destroyed. Nearly 100 students were in attendance.

News of January 7th.

NEW YORK, Jan 7.—The Times special dispatch from Washington says that a bill will be introduced in Congress repealing that part of the Confiscation Act which limits the possession of property sold to the natural life of the owner. This step is considered absolutely necessary to afford protection to purchasers of confiscated property in Norfolk. Rebels whose property has been confiscated are returning in large numbers, taking the oath of allegiance and reinstating themselves in comfort in their "rights."

The Tribune's Washington dispatch of the 6th says: At a caucus of the Republican members of the Senate, held after the adjournment to-day, a proposition to reorganize the Committee on the Conduct of the War was discussed.

Maj Gen Burnside did not leave to-day as anticipated, being detained completing his report of operations while in command of the Army of the Potomac. Rumor says that statements of the General in Chief, in his recent report, are contradicted by facts in official dispatches contained in Burnside's report, and the public will be satisfied that the statements made before the Committee on the Conduct of the War will afford sufficient vindication of Burnside.

The World's Washington dispatch says the Committee on Ways and Means had the Naval Appropriation bill under consideration to-day, and examined in Committee, Smith, Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks at great length in regard to the appropriation for his branch of the service. Mr. Lenthall, of the Bureau of Construction, has been summoned to appear before them; also, Mr. Sherwood, Engineer-in-Chief. The Committee are getting hold of some important facts connected with the naval service which have leaked out.

Official reports put the Union loss in killed, wounded and missing at Chancellorsville at the appalling figure of 25,000 men.

The World's Chattanooga correspondent, writing on the 24th December, states that the rebel Gen. Wheeler, with a large force of cavalry, attacked a train and captured it for a few moments, but the 4th Ohio and 20th Missouri mounted infantry came up and dispersed the whole rebel force and recaptured the train, taking over two hundred prisoners.

A letter from Harper's Ferry states that Cole's Maryland Cavalry have met with a serious disaster, 67 out of 76 men being either captured or killed near Rectortown, Va., where they encountered an overwhelming force of rebels.

Archbishop Hughes died on Sunday night. He was buried to day from St. Patrick's Cathedral. High Mass was celebrated by Bishop Timon, of Buffalo, and Bishop McCloskey pronounced the funeral discourse. The Cathedral was crowded to its utmost capacity. A large number of Catholic clergy were present from various cities. After the ceremonies the remains were interred in a tomb under the Cathedral, with impressive religious exercises.

CINCINNATI, January 7.—The following is a special dispatch to the Commercial:

Cumberland Gap, January 6.—An overwhelming force under Sam Jones attacked our troops at Jonesville, Va., on Sunday, consisting of about 300 men. After a desperate resistance our troops surrendered, losing 30 killed, 30 wounded, one gun and 2 small howitzers.

FORTRESS MONROE, January 7.—The steamer Guide from Newbern the 5th instant has arrived. Intelligence reached Newbern yesterday that the expedition under Col. McChesney, of the 1st North Carolina regiment, which left Newbern on the 30th for Greenville, met the enemy on Thursday night near Washington. Both parties were surprised. Lieut. Adyms charged on and routed the enemy, killing a lieutenant and 7 men, (all of whom were left on the field), captured 10 men, one caisson, with horses, of Starr's battery. Our loss was Lieutenant [illegible] killed and 6 men wounded.

ST. LOUIS, January 7.—James E. Yeatman, President of the Western Sanitary Commission, publishes a report on the condition of the contrabands along the Mississippi river. They number 50,000, of whom 15,000 are in the army. [illegible] are in want and are neglected. He recommends a plan for organizing free labor and leasing the plantations along the Mississippi under a bureau of [illegible] mission to be appointed by Government.

BALTIMORE, January 7.—Gov. Bradford's message was transmitted to day. He says the finances of the State of Maryland are in a prosperous condition. In reference to the question of emancipation he believes to-day, as he has believed for years, that if we had long ago provided for the gradual emancipation of slaves of the State we should now be in regard to all national elements of public prosperity in advance of our present position. The products of our State and its natural resources are not such as are adapted or can be developed by slave labor. He expressed himself satisfied that the people of the State in the light of calm and deliberate reflection have come to the same conviction. When the conspirators of the South lifted their hands against the Union and pointed their weapons at an institution upon which their visionary republic was to rest, they struck a blow at its very vitals in every Border State in which it has continued to [illegible], and which must inevitably result in its ultimate destruction. It becomes us therefore to whom the whole [illegible] rightfully belongs to take immediate measures for the removal of slavery, which should be no longer delayed than may be required by the proper respect to those industrial pursuits with which the institution has been so long and so intimately [illegible] its fearful resources.

News of January 8th.

CHICAGO, January 8.—Special dispatches from Washington say: The fact that the Alabama is believed to be making her way towards the Pacific coast has at last aroused the attention of both the War and Navy Departments to our defenseless situation there. It is stated by Californians that a single 40 gun frigate could take the harbor of San Francisco, or any other harbor on the coast. The Navy Department have determined to send two or three men of war to that place at the earliest possible moment. Senator Conness has also secured from the War Department the assignment of [illegible] competent and able Major General to the Pacific coast, with several [illegible] and a small addition to the infantry force. This relieves Gen. Wright. Californians have for some time been making urgent representations of the need of these changes and reinforcements.

CHICAGO, January 8.—Special dispatches from Washington say: Dr. Gwinn, of Boston, employed in the Treasury Department, has been arrested, charged with having abstracted a large amount of greenbacks. The amount taken is not yet ascertained.

A large batch of military nominations, mostly promotions, were sent to the Senate yesterday. Among them is that of U. S. Grant to be Major General in the regular army, dating from the fall of Vicksburg; Gen. Thomas to be Brigadier-General in the regular army, dating from Chickamauga; Meade, McPherson and Sherman to be Brigadiers to rank in the regular army, the former dating from Gettysburg, the latter from Vicksburg.

The balance of the 5-20 loan unsold amounted to $5,000,000. No more will be authorized by the Committee on Ways and Means, as Secretary Chase intends to rely for some time to come on the six per cent. legal tender notes.

INDIANAPOLIS, January 8.—Judge Caleb B. Smith, of the U. S. District Court, died in this city last night, of hemorrhage of the lungs.

WASHINGTON, Jan 8.—The Star of this evening says that private information leads to the inevitable conclusion that the rebel authorities are quietly moving their military factories, etc., located at Richmond, to some point in South Carolina. This is the result of Longstreet's failure and our expedition against Knoxville, as the continued occupation of East Tennessee is entirely incompatible with the security of the rebel occupation of Richmond as a chief military depot.

The steamer Yazoo has arrived with dates from New Orleans to the 31st. Another secret expedition left there on the 30th, the strength and destination of which are unknown. Little doubt is entertained but that it is intended eventually for Mobile. It is supposed that Pascagoula will be occupied for the present, and an advance made on Mobile as soon as the rainy season ends. It has rained three days terrifically. On Sunday morning the city was submerged from one to two feet. This lasted near the river for several hours. The streets are still under water back towards the swamps.

There is no army news. Nothing new from Texas. Guerrilla fighting has entirely ceased on the Mississippi.

The Times' Washington dispatch says that the removal of all the rebel prisoners confined at various points throughout the loyal States, to within the limits of Gen Butler's department, is to commence immediately. The rebel officers at Johnson's Island will probably be removed to Fort Delaware.

A special dispatch from Washington says: The Commission appointed for the relief of sufferers by Indian hostilities in Minnesota have reported 2,940 claims presented and examined. The claims amounted to nearly $2,000,000. There were a number of others, but the Commission did not examine them for want of time. The Commission awarded the sum of $1,370,000. The sum of $200,000 appropriated last session for the immediate relief of the most needy of the sufferers was paid over to 1,400 persons, many of whom were made widows and orphans by the Indians. Nearly 11,000 witnesses were examined, the testimony covering about 16,000 sheets of legal foolscap paper. The testimony shows that over 800 men, women and children were butchered by Indians. Thousands were driven from their homesteads, and are now refugees, it being unsafe to return to the frontier. It is estimated that $5,000,000 will not reimburse the people for the damage done. Government holds $3,000,000 of annuities forfeited by the rebellious Sioux, and it is proposed to use this sum in payment of the above claims.

A. N. Palmer, private secretary of Collector Barney, was arrested yesterday and sent to Fort Lafayette.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, January 6.—In the House a Committee of nine was appointed to consider the expediency of constructing a railroad between New York and Washington, for postal and other purposes.

Farnsworth, from the Military Committee, reported a joint resolution extending the bounties heretofore paid from the 5th January to March.

A bill was introduced in the Senate yesterday restoring the bounty of $400 to $402 until the 15th February and a bounty not exceeding $100 to persons of African descent residing in States now in rebellion during such time as the President may determine.

In the Senate to day Howard, Collamer, Johnson, Harlan, Trumbull and Sherman were appointed a Committee on the Pacific Railroad.

Howard offered a resolution that the Committee on Judiciary be instructed to consider the propriety of repealing the joint resolution of July 17, 1862, relative to the construction of the Confiscation Act, and particularly so much of said resolution as purports to prohibit forfeiture of real estate beyond the natural life of the offender. Objected to and laid over.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—In the House of Representatives to-day Mr. Blaine of Maine offered a resolution, which lies over, directing the Secretary of the Treasury to ascertain and report the amount of debt incurred by the several States to suppress the insurrection and declaring as the judgement of the House that all such debts should ultimately be liquidated by the General Government.

Mr. Baldwin, of Massachusetts, offered a preamble setting forth that organized treason, having its headquarters at Richmond, exists in definite violation of the Constitution and has no claim to be treated otherwise than as outlaws, therefore

Resolved, That any proposition or negotiation with the rebels ought to be rejected without hesitation or delay.

The resolution was adopted by 88 yeas to 24 nays.

Mr. Rodgers offered a resolution declaring for the vigorous prosecution of the war, but at the same time asking for peace, conciliation and compromise as far as consistent with honor, and most earnestly recommending the cooperation of the President and Senate in sending commissioners to Richmond, in order that the war may be brought to a close, which was tabled by 77 to 42.

In the Senate the resolution that the Judiciary Committee consider the propriety of repealing the joint resolution of July 17th, 1862, which prohibits the forfeiture of real estate beyond the natural life of the offenders, was adopted.

Mr. Howe offered a resolution that the President be requested to call out 1,000,000 volunteers for 90 days, to carry freedom to every captive in the rebel prisons, and that Gen. Grant be assigned to the command of said troops. The resolution was referred to the Military Committee, and ordered printed.

The bill for the continuation of bounties to volunteers, and the Message of the President with the papers accompanying the same, were referred to the Finance Committee with the understanding that it should be early reported on. The Senate then considered the amendments to the Enrollment Act, all of which were adopted except the one repealing the $300 commutation, which was to be acted on hereafter.

WASHINGTON, January 8.—In the Senate to-day Wilson reported back the joint resolutions of thanks to Gen. Hooker, his officers and men.

Sprague reported and introduced a resolution of thanks to Burnside, his officers and men.

Nesmith introduced a resolution of thanks to Gen. Thomas, his officers and men.

A debate followed on the $300 commutation clause. Lane of Indiana advocated its repeal. Wilson opposed, and said that he believed the country would sustain him. He thought that the term of service should be reduced from three years to eighteen months. No action taken.

A bill was introduced in the Senate, reducing the pay of military officers. Of major generals, $4,000 on duty and $3,000 on leave; of brigadiers $3,200 on duty and $2,500 on leave; of colonels, $2,800 on duty and $2,100 on leave. The lower grades to be correspondingly reduced.

A bill was introduced by Senator Wilson making all enlistments in the regular army during the rebellion, for three years, giving army clothing and rations to colored as well as to white soldiers, and giving freedom to the wives and children of such soldiers if they be slaves.

The most exciting debate of the session occurred to day. Conness attacked Hale for abusing the Navy Department and said that he regarded the attacks by friends of the Administration as more dangerous than those of enemies. This first speech of Conness created a favorable impression. Doolittle also spoke in condemnation of professed friends attacking the Administration. Hale reiterated his charges of fraud, malfeasance, etc., against the Navy Department, while Senator Davis denominated those Senators as jackals who endeavored to intimidate an investigation.

DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM HAS EFfected cures in numerous cases, where the most skillful physicians in this country and in Europe have been employed, and have exercised their skill in vain. Cases pronounced incurable, and surrendered as hopeless beyond a doubt, leaving the patients without a single ray to enliven them in their gloom, have been cured by Dr. Hall's Balsam, and the "victims of consumption" are now vigorous and strong as the most robust among us. And these cases are not isolated ones, they are numerous, and can be pointed out in every community where this remedy has been tested. THERE is no other way to cure diseases but by first purifying the whole system so as to create a healthy circulation.
The first medical men of the age agree with us that no disease of any extent can be cured without using such medicines as will act directly upon the blood. Why many medical men have failed to cure chronic diseases is, because the medicines used have not been such as will act beneficially on the blood.
The many thousands of bottles which have been used by the public, and the many gallons and barrels supplied to the physicians, warrant us in saying that the last two years we have been more successful with our Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup in curing hopeless cases of chronic diseases than have any other remedies in the hands of physicians, or before the public.
It is now admitted that no combination known to the profession, acts so promptly upon disease as our SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP.

MINERS COMING.—We observe that several miners, the pioneers of the season, arrived on the steamer from San Francisco yesterday. They are just in time for one of the earliest through trips to our Northern gold and silver mines, and we wish them an abundant harvest of gold as a reward for their enterprise.

FINED FOR VIOLATING CITY ORDINANCE.—James Dobson, charged with shooting James H. Lappeus through the thighs, on Monday morning, appeared before the Recorder yesterday, and after hearing of testimony, was fined $25 and costs, for a violation of city ordinance regulating the discharge of fire arms within certain limits.

THE PACIFIC.—A correspondent writing from Astoria, states that the steamer Pacific, which left St Helens at 4 A. M., on the 8th, was detained at Astoria until the morning of the 9th, having backed on to the flats from alongside the wharf, to prevent being chafed and bruised.

PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT.—Examinations of the different classes in the Portland Academy and Female Seminary will be conducted till noon to day. The Concordian Society will give a public entertainment this evening. The friends and patrons of the school are respectfully invited to attend.

OREGON FRUIT IN SAN FRANCISCO.—The 4,500 boxes apples shipped hence to California per steamship Oregon, last trip, closed out at prices ruling from $1 10 to $2 25, according to kind and condition.

PUBLIC SQUARE.—Preparations to commence the all important work of grading the Public Square are being pushed rapidly forward. A shanty for the protection of tools from the inclemency of the season, is already constructed.

THE steamer Julia, which left yesterday morning for the Cascades, had not returned late last evening. It is probable she succeeded in getting up, though not in time to return before to day.

ORDERED EAST.—Capt. M. Crawford, for several years in command of the Overland Escort, takes his departure for Washington on the steamer this evening.

THE steamer Vancouver made her regular trip all right yesterday, and reports the ice rapidly disappearing from the Columbia, and no large pieces left.

BARK ALMATIA, Capt. Richardson, from San Francisco, arrived at Astoria on Monday evening last. She may be expected here this morning.

AN AGREEABLE SURPRISE.—A correspondent writing from the Dalles, under date of the 8th inst., says: Last night, Rev. Mr. Condon, Congregational minister of this place, made the recipient of a very pleasant surprise visit. Gotten up as it was by a few friends, without much time or deliberation, the sum of $500, which was presented, made the surprise an agreeable one. We noticed a single purse, containing $235 in gold, which was contributed by the employees of the O. S. N. Company.

PROLIFIC—THAT KIND OF TODD Y.—We have made an estimate of the number of Mrs. Lincoln's brothers and sisters. Her father must have had an immense family. We have already reliable accounts of twenty-five brothers of hers, who are prominent officers in the rebel army; and of forty sisters who have presented rebel flags, and jacks and "sich like," to the Confederate troops. Calculating there is still a number of brothers and sisters who have not been brought into public notice, and throwing herself in for good measure, old Todd must have been the father of about eighty nine children.—White Cloud Chief.

SLOW COACHES.—At a Quaker wedding in Newport recently, says the Providence Journal, the guests seated themselves according to the custom of the Friends in general, and waited in silence for the service to commence. For one hour and a half not a word was spoken and scarce a movement made. At the expiration of that time the spirit moved the parties to action, and the groom and bride took each other by the hand and offered and received the marriage vows. That cannot be called a "hasty marriage."

An exchange says if Congress does not abolish the duty on the importation of foreign paper this winter, its members will deserve to be sold for old rags. The combination of paper manufacturers rules with a merciless hand. The paper having the largest circulation in the world, is now said to be that issued by Secretary Chase. It is an extremely loyal publication, too. It supports both the Administration and the Union.—Appeal.

GOOD ADVICE.—Never buy goods of any dealer that don't advertise. You can be sure that he is close, stingy, and lacks sufficient energy to take advantage of the markets and buy cheap. In fact, it is a safe rule to set it down that you will have to pay twenty per cent more for goods to a merchant that don't advertise than to one who does.—Ex.

An Editor's Visit to an Editor's Farm

Shut within the city for three months past, because a newspaper will not edit itself even in hot weather, not a green field had I set eyes on, all this summer, till Mr Greeley said a week ago,

"Come up and spend a Saturday on the farm"

Mr Greeley's farm is at Chappaqua, a station which in spite of being on the Harlem Railroad is not a great way from New York. Every Friday night our venerable contemporary, getting weary with the week, leaves Printing House square and goes up to smell his own grass, to nod to his own cattle, and to drink water at his own rock spring. All this freshens away his venerable look, and turns him into a young man again in twenty four hours. This farm supplies vegetables for the market and good reading for the Tribune, just as a certain other farm at Peekskill grows apples for New York and preaching for Brooklyn. What other farms in the country yield better fruit?

Drawing near the station, I overheard a passenger say to his companion

"We are coming upon Horace Greeley's country seat"

"I suppose he lives in fine style," said the other

"No, he lives like a laboring man," was the reply

How could I help turning around and remarking,

"Well, he is a laboring man!"

Living in the woods, in a romantic haunt, barricaded against the world by living palisades of forest trees,—this busy man, taking his rest in hard work drops his pen to shoulder his axe, and for twelve years has been chopping hemlocks, birches, chesnuts, oaks, maples—yet his woods still stand. He can cut a tree or split a rail as well as Abraham Lincoln and can probably write as good a proclamation.

"I am prudent of my oaks" said he, as he walked in the shade of aged boughs that shook their leaves to the same wind that filled Hendrick Hudson's sails. Older than these, some others had thought of growing before Columbus had thought of sailing. An army of veterans, they encamp on his hillsides—soldiers of many battles against tempest thunderbolts—still shaking their banners in every breeze—standing where they will stand long after we who walked under them have faded like a leaf. A man looks at a flower, "How short lived!" But what say the trees when they look down at men? Or what say the rocks when they look up at trees? Nay, what says the globe itself, except to bear a faint witness of Him to whom a thousand years are as one day, passing like a tale that is told!

"Do you employ slave labor?" I inquired

"We will walk round the farm," he replied, "and perhaps you will meet some contrabands."

I found—O marvel of the times!—that the best blood of South Carolina was tilling Horace Greeley's fields!

Never were seventy acres more diversified than on this farm—crowding together meadow, garden, orchard, ravine, precipice, cascade, and forest primeval. Part of it is as level as a prairie, and part too steep for a goat to climb. It is Nature in her wildness and her tameness, a little Switzerland.

There were three of us—the third being our friend Morton, at whom the geese hissed because he makes the famous gold pens.

"Let us go down into the ravine and dip our cups into the well in the rock," said our host, who has a known fondness for cold water. After drinking our fill, with a relish better than of wine, we sat on the rocks at the foot of the waterfall, and stripping our arms bare, plunged them into the rapids till the blood turned cold, and we rose like giant's refreshed. Sometimes in a freshet this stream plays tricks, and like a wolf in the fable has once destroyed a dam. But it makes up in good looks what it lacks in good conduct. The fishes in the fish pond would have come to our hands for a few crumbs, only we forgot to carry the crumbs. Mr Greeley talks to them sometimes, but they, just as when St Anthony preached to their shallow pates for the first time, still turn their tails and swim away. Climbing up to higher ground in the woods, whir-r-r went the partridges from under our feet, a very picture of unnecessary skedaddling—for not a gun is fired among these trees, and all the sensible birds know it. The squirrels were taking their comfort whistling as contentedly as if they owned the place. The locusts were as loud as a brass band. They have a sound of Sunday in their voices. The bees, though having the whole garden to themselves, envied us the few flowers that we carried in our hands, for they settled on our roses and pinks and heart's ease, as if they were custom house officers come to search for contraband goods. Knee-deep we walked in clover, the grasshoppers flying out before us like rebels before General Rosecrans. A grasshopper eats like a hungry man, yet even while he devours your substance, you bear no grudge against him, because of the wiseness of his face. When he happens to leap away and loses his hold of the clover stalk, his yellow belly turns up so like to a frog's as to cheat a Frenchman. Besides, this creature speaks the dead languages, and "chirps on in Greek still!" But the acrobats will soon stop their ground and lofty tumblings, for yonder come the turkeys with sheriff's warrant after every one of them. Grasshoppers are good to be gobbled, and turkeys must get ready for Thanksgiving.

Walking in the apple orchard, we were morally rebuked by the trees—they were such fruitbearers, living such profitable lives, making so much of their opportunities, bearing such a flavor of good deeds. "By their fruit ye shall know them," is a judgment that falls less lightly on trees than on men! Look at those russets, with boughs bending down like banyans, and touching the earth with an overweight of ripening fruit!

"How do you make your apple trees so thrifty?" I asked.

"An apple tree," he replied, "is like a cow tied to a stake, you must carry food to it, or it will starve."

Mr Greeley's apple trees live as well as if they dined every day at Crook & Duff's.

Every field on his farm made us think of Douglas Jerrold's account of Australia where "if you tickle the earth with a hoe, she laughs with a harvest."

The pinnacles of Mr Greeley's grounds lift one up into the presence of half a dozen magnificent prospects, on one side a rolling country sculptured "as if God's finger touched but did not press," in the making it—on another, hill ranges running off northward toward Mount Kisco, on another great and precipitous depths yawning at one's feet, and tempting to cast oneself down.

After a long walk, during which we debated the best spot for building the new house, yet concluding that the new house would never be built, we lay down on the grass and mutually agreed that God had made the country, and man made the town. Should we take a nap in the shade? The most famous man in our party of three has a fine knack of sleeping either under a sermon or under a tree! But it was too breezy and there was danger of taking cold—even at the very hour of day when a city full of people were broiling in the sun like fowls on a gridiron. But lying flat on one's back and looking into the sky, is so delight that a certain school has used to talk, and he talk of it [illegible] again. How one's head swims in the blue [illegible] clouds pass over like white waves. Going [illegible] and looking back at the earth, [illegible] round [illegible] rocks and hills all turning [illegible] drunkenness [illegible] turn the world upside down.

What variety in all the world [illegible] clouds! They are [illegible] yet never fading [illegible] temple. Castles in the air [illegible] tumbled ruins [illegible] upheaved rocks and mountains [illegible] coast lines, profiles [illegible] and a thousand more pictured glories [illegible] sees in the clouds! What [illegible] on the shining fields! but the [illegible] and their shadows pass away together, and the grass is gilded again in the sun [illegible] left to think of the shadow [illegible] passes not yet—the [illegible] down and earth. But on such a day of peace, could there be war in the world? Yet who [illegible] think just then of Robert Shaw [illegible] at Fort Wagner, and of [illegible] Walker in falling at Gettysburg? Summer days are not bright enough to cover the shadows on human hearts. [illegible] shall come the consummation? [illegible] and great glory' is the prophecy. And [illegible] the overhanging cloud of battle [illegible] sign that the coming of the Son of Man is at hand, and that the day of our redemption draweth nigh!

Does any [illegible] ask, how does Mr Greeley find time to mind his farm? The farmer's wife is a good farmer. [illegible] ages—and how, being a good man, he is [illegible] aged! Garden and hot house, with flowers [illegible] innumerable, containing not only the 'dear common flowers' but curious plants from all countries, are her special care. A farm without a flower garden is like a shirt without a collar, good for use but not for show. And somehow, flowers grow better for a woman than for a man. A farm without a woman is an ill graced bachelor!

It was a perfect day. Our visit was like a jewel without a flaw. Now and then comes some rare and special day, set in the round year like a diamond in a ring. This was such a day, not possible to a man living in the country, but possible only to one who had not seen God's grass since last summer. It was cool water to long thirsty lips. As a man loosed from prison goes home to look with ravishment upon the faces of his children, so one escaping from the bedlam of streets and mud summer finds in his first look at the sky and the fields a delight unspeakable. It belongs to him and to no one else. It was the exclusive inheritance of one member of this party of three. It was to him the whole summer crowded into a day.

Of course the truer life is the one which is lived in the constant presence of these same wondrous scenes. Often, however, they who look at nature most discern it the least. But men ought to be daily readers of what good old Sir Thomas Browne calls "the liberal manuscript of nature." All eyes ought to daily see the sun in his rising and setting; the sight is needed for the good of the soul. "Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge." But when we are shut out from this speech, we are ignorant of this knowledge. How long a journey the Queen of Sheba made to see Solomon! Yet, after all, his glory was not equal to the lilies of the field. And since the Lord spake of the lilies once, the lilies evermore speak of their Lord. What a magnificent Song of Nature is the Psalmist's "Praise the Lord [illegible] fire and hail, snow and vapor, stormy wind fulfilling his word, mountains and all hills, fruitful trees and all cedars, creeping things and flying fowl. His glory is above the heavens and earth, Praise ye the Lord!"

By and by, looking at our watches, it was time for the train. We carried off with us the best part of the farm—its master. A plain man, plainer than his neighbors, with a face as kindly as a child's and a heart as simple, he trudged with stick in hand away from his happy fields, not to see them again for seven days.—When a man owns a paradise, it is hard to live in it only one day in a week! But there is hard work to be done in the world, and this is one of the men to do it. What if all men did theirs as faithfully! And for his work's sake he will be held in remembrance long after his summer day companions are under the grass and forgotten.—N. Y. Independent

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23 1862.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
